

What is TRIAD?

Racine County TRIAD is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization comprised of law enforcement, older adults, and agencies serving older adults.

Why is TRIAD important?

Older adults comprise the most rapidly growing segment of our population. Increased life expectancy is creating new issues and problems for older adults and the criminal justice system.

Who may participate?

You are invited to join us if you'd like to help improve the quality of life for older adults in Racine County.

What does TRIAD do?

- ♦Educates by sponsoring crime prevention programs
- ♦Recruits and trains volunteers to assist the police and sheriff's departments
- ♦Provides a forum for law enforcement and the community to share needs and concerns and develop solutions
- ♦Involves older adults with agencies and law enforcement in community-wide solutions

What are TRIAD projects?

- ♦Produced an updated Racine County Transportation Chart
- ♦55 Alive Defensive Driving Course
- ♦Hosted Elderly Safety and Abuse Abatement Conferences
- ♦Presented Y2K Seminars
- ♦Crime Prevention Programming

What are TRIAD's results?

- ♦Reduced criminal victimization of older adults
- ♦Improved quality of life for older adults in the community
- ♦Implemented solutions with greater community involvement
- ♦Focused attention on the crime-related needs of older adults
- ♦Enhanced delivery of law enforcement services to older adults

How can you get involved?

- ♦You can fill out an interest form; it's available by calling the number below.
- ♦You can attend a monthly meeting held on the first Tuesday of every month (except July) at 8:30 a.m.
- ♦Call (262) 886-9612 for more information.
